

Bethel Bible Village
Houseparent(s) - Couple
Job Description

VISION

We envision children transformed by the redemptive power of Jesus Christ and empowered to fulfill all their God-given potential.

MISSION

Our mission is to provide safe, nurturing and Christ-centered homes for children of families in crisis, and equip and inspire them to live productive lives.

POSITION OVERVIEW This position provides a temporary home for children and youth in the absence of the natural parents. The Houseparent(s) will bring the children and youth to spiritual, emotional, physical, and social maturity until their own homes can be restored. It is the Houseparents' responsibility to train the children and youth in all areas of life according to Biblical principles and good childcare practices. The Houseparent(s) will have a full understanding of the diverse cultures and circumstances experienced by our clients. The Houseparent(s) will assist in the training of other house parent staff.

REPORTS TO: Director of Residential Programs

DEPARTMENT: Residential Services

SUPERVISES: None

TEAM COVENANTS: Commitments we hold each other accountable for, to function as an effective team.

- Team Member: Contributes to team effort by performing other duties as directed or assigned by supervisor. As a team member, abides by the team covenants.
- Healthy Conflict Resolution: As we encounter personal or operational difficulties with each other, we will seek to solve those difficulties through prompt Biblically- based means such as prayer, one-on-one mutually respectful discussions and lastly, if needed, with mutually respectful group discussions.
- Mutual Accountability: We will periodically, individually and as a group, report on and give feedback to each other on the results and effectiveness of our activities in relationship to accomplish Bethel's mission and in relationship to how they may be impacting the effectiveness of the activities of each other. Being accountable, we also commit to grow in our abilities through gathering knowledge through feedback from others, outside research, and formal continuing education as it is made available.
- People come before Programs: We will seek to consider the personal welfare of each other over the need to follow precisely routine procedures and methods as we accomplish our individual and team responsibilities.
- Pray for each other: In order to keep our hearts and minds calibrated with each other, we commit to pray daily for God's blessing on each of our team members.

- Confidentiality: When specifically requested by a team member or otherwise for the best interest of that team member, we commit to hold private communications in confidence. In the rare case we feel that we cannot hold that confidence in fairness to the team, we will first ask the other team members to release the information themselves to the other members.
- Integrity: We commit to each other that all our communications and interactions with and about each other and with others concerning Bethel's ministry will be based on a foundation of integrity.

EXTERNAL COVENANTS: Commitments we make to those we serve to bring value and build long-term relationships.

- Honesty: We are committed to the utmost integrity in our ministry of service to children, families, community, donors, and others.
- Excellence in Care: We are committed to continuous quality improvement, programs, services, and staff that will ultimately enhance the lives of children, families, and others associated with this ministry.
- Accountability/Stewardship: We are committed to ethical development practices, to carefully steward our resources, and to be accountable to God, community, and each other.
- Model a Christ Centered Environment: We are committed to exemplifying our faith in God by living out our Christian values.
- A Community of Learners: We are committed to building relationships to create a community of learners, with ongoing training, encouraging participation, and to be open to new ideas and concepts.
